JUNE Callwood LECTURE

13TH ANNUAL JUNE CALLWOOD LECTURE UNJUST IMPRISONMENT

ALBERT WOODFOX

Albert Woodfox served more than four decades in solitary confinement, all for a crime he did not commit.

Dedicated to reforming the inhumanity of solitary confinement, Woodfox shares Solitary, his memoir of transformation and hope, which offers lessons for Canadian justice. The Lecture is supported in-part by the June Callwood Endowment Fund at the Toronto Public Library Foundation.

Book signing to follow the lecture.

Tue, Apr 2
Toronto Reference Library, Appel Salon
Doors open at 6 pm

Free tickets to this event are required and will be available online at tpl.ca/appelsalon starting Tue, Mar 12

The annual June Callwood Lecture honours the life, work and legacy of journalist, author and social activist June Callwood (1924-2007). It provides a platform for the exploration and discussion of contemporary social justice issues.

GREAT BOOKS LECTURE SERIES

tpl.ca/greatbooks

In celebration of the 125th anniversary of Labour Day, this year's theme focuses on literary classics preoccupied with labour. The work we do defines us, personally and culturally, and solidifies us as members of a community and a nation. This series examines several "works on work" and how these imaginings of labour create and question our concepts of self.

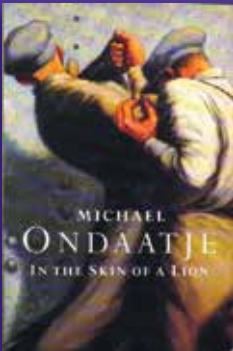

Series curated by Paul Chafe of Ryerson University.

Accessibility Services

We strive to provide all Torontonians with free and equitable access to our collections, services, programs and branches — regardless of age, illness or physical disability.

VISIT A BRANCH NEAR YOU

100 library branches across the city

You can order items online and send them to your nearest branch for you or your family to pick up. Most branches are wheelchair accessible, have assistive listening devices and reading aids.

tpl.ca/accessibility/branchequipment

Our programs are open to people of all disabilities. Contact the hosting branch to make arrangements
