Caroline Balderston Parry (Canadian). – March 1984 - 14 May 1999. – 2 archival boxes, 25cm.

Biographical sketch: Caroline Balderston Parry (b. 1945) is a Canadian author, musician, educator and performer. She is currently the Director of Religious Education for the Unitarian Church of Montreal in Westmount and lives in Montreal most of the year. Parry's late husband (1942-1995) David Parry, was a singer, actor and director, solo performer and member of the folk group Friends of Fiddler's Green. Her son, Richard Parry (b. 1977) leads the group Bell Orchestre and is the bassist for the rock band Arcade Fire. Evalyn Parry, her daughter, is an actress, director, spoken-word performer and musician.

Her book, Let's Celebrate Canada's Special Days, published in 1987, an important reference work for children. The book describes more than 250 holidays and special days celebrated in Canada. Eleanora's Diary (1994), is a Dear Canada series book based on the 1830s diary of a Canadian immigrant girl, Eleanora Hallen. Zoomerang A Boomerang! (1991), a collection of poetry for beginning readers was edited by Caroline Parry.

Custodial history: Gift of Caroline Balderston Parry

Scope and content: This gift of material represents the literary archive of Caroline Balderston Parry from March 1984 to May 14, 1999. The current gift contains manuscripts, papers, correspondence and textbooks related to Let's Celebrate Canada's Special Days. Caroline B. Parry went to work on this book on May 20, 1985 - Victoria Day.

Arrangement: The archivist has grouped folders by title, ordered by date of creation. The original location of each file is provided. Date order is complicated by the fact that drafts and proofs are dated both by "day/month/year" and by "month/day/year." In cases of ambiguity, the archivist has assumed "day/month/year."

Rights to material: Toronto Public Library Foundation granted exhibition rights. Intellectual property rights/copyrights and permission to digitize materials remain with Caroline Balderston Parry.

Restrictions on access: No restrictions in place
